[31 CFR Part 700]
STANDARDS OF CONDUCT
Conduct on Training Center Grounds

On July 22, 1976, a notice of proposed rulemaking was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (41 CFR 30135), setting forth regulations governing conduct in or on the buildings and grounds of the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center.

On September 12, 1975, the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center officially moved from an office building at 1310 L Street in Washington, D. C. to the recently decommissioned Glynco Naval Air Station near Brunswick, Georgia. Because the Center is now the custodian of numerous buildings and approximately 1500 acres of land on what is now a campus-like facility the Director has determined that regulations governing conduct in or on the buildings and grounds are necessary to protect person and property.

On January 29, 1976, the Administrator of General Services, pursuant to the authority vested in him by the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 377), as amended, and the Act of June 1, 1948 (62 Stat. 281), delegated authority to the Secretary of the Treasury to appoint uniformed guards as United States special policemen and to make regulations to protect persons and property at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center, Glynco, Georgia (41 C.F.R. 5869). Further, the Administrator delegated authority to the Secretary to annex to such regulations reasonable penalties (not to exceed those prescribed in 40 U.S.C. 318c) as will ensure their enforcement. On February 25, 1976, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury David R. Macdonald redelegated this authority to the Director of the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (41 C.F.R. 9398). On March 15, 1976, the Director appointed all members of the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center uniformed guard force as special policemen (41 FR 10932).
